

TATLER

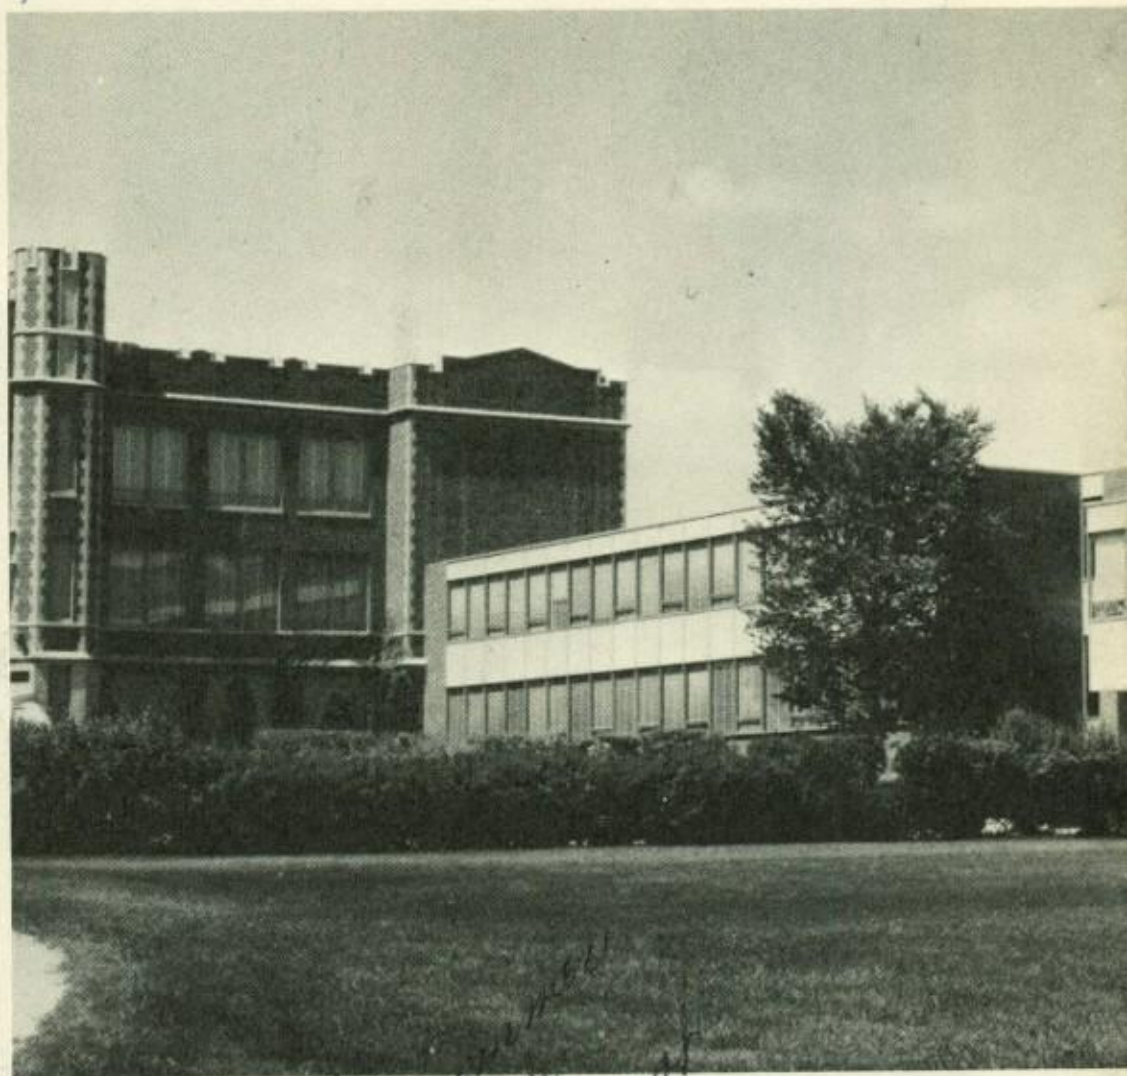

Shirley,
Good luck.
Remember all the fun we have had this year. I hope we can have more next year. Be good and have fun this summer. Don't work too hard.
Love,
Shawn

Shirley,
Best of luck to a real sweet girl.
Everytime I think of you going with Jim, I think of the day over at Stroud's when Merwin asked you who your special boy friend was. I guess he knows
now. Have fun this summer & be good to Jim.

See you next fall,
Jennine Caspas

Shirley,

Best of luck to a real swell girl, never forgot the times we had in Bookkeeping with
"Jo." and English with
"Jon" Behave yourself
this summer and take it easy on Jim.

Jim

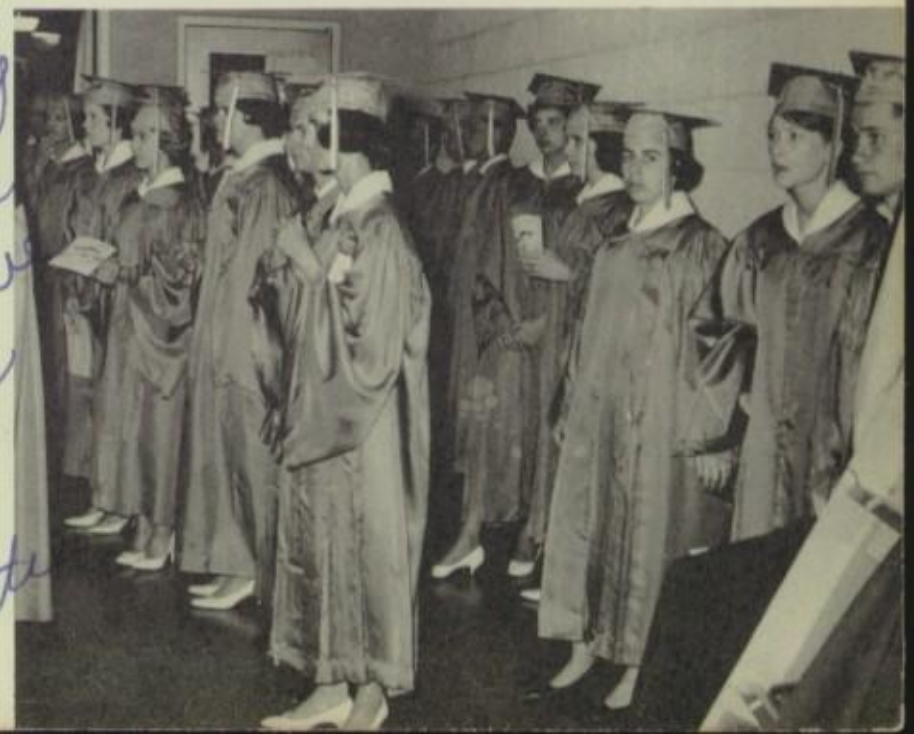

Shirley,
Best of luck to a real sweet gal. I'll never forget good old Home Ec. Best of luck with Jim. ~~Love you~~

Shirley,
Well school and almost over and then it will be no
time until we're seniors What ever they are. It has really been fun having Home Ec with you. Be good & may you have the best of luck
Love
Dottie

Shirley
I hope you are in some of my classes
next year - then I can bug
you! - I used to be conceited, but now I'm perfect. Good luck
(you may need it!)

P.S. - Maybe
this letter should be omitted (?)

Shirley -
It's been great knowing you this year. You've bugged a lot of fun in later. Keep that great smile and personality and you'll go far. Be good this summer and come back and see me in Easter
next year. Love ya.
Dick

Shirley
Good luck next year and watch that little brother of mine. Stay out of trouble or you'll be in it.
Don't always be a punk.

Shirley -
Since this was your first year
on the letter staff
how did you like it? Hard or easy?
I hope if you were in it next year that the results that you got back from the printer were better than the year's.
Best of wishes,
Shirley to all real (or so) quite a good and nice girl.

 Time has gone by so fast, and yet so many things have happened.
 Sometime in the future when you go back to look at all your old Sattlers and begin to think back on old times remember
 those hickie times
 as freshmen when we shared lockers. Then as you come to the pages that we did together, remember all the problems we had, and the mathematics involved which I still have not completely mastered. Best wishes always, and I'll see you 5th period again next year.

Foreword

Man lives in time. Clocks, ticking seconds, guide our lives. The flow of minutes rings our bells, starts our tests, marks the ends of hours. Hours become days; days become weeks. Months go by. Homework assignments that once loomed ominously slide softly into yesterday as calendar pages fall. Athletic seasons pass.

Time can be the difference between success and failure, but no one can stop a clock for long. Calendars move less relentlessly than clocks. They allow time for memories.

A calendar has been chosen as the theme for the 1965 Tatler. The staff hopes that the rush of time will flow gently with memories as you relive the past year.

Dedication

For fourteen years a petite, smiling woman has provided one of life's essentials—food—to R.T.H.S. students and faculty. With a schedule that would discourage most, Mrs. Helen Calhoun cheerfully puts in the twelve to fifteen hours per day needed to accomplish her many tasks.

First and foremost on her schedule is the responsibility of preparing daily a nutritious lunch for the high school family. In addition, Mrs. Calhoun offers doughnuts and milk before school, orders pop for dances, cooks and serves for banquets, packs sack lunches for the athletic teams, prepares desserts for the Board of Education meetings, and maintains a spotless kitchen.

It is with admiration and respect for her many wonderful qualities that the year-book staff dedicates the 1965 Tatler to Mrs. Helen Calhoun. It is our hope that it will express Rochelle Township High School's appreciation of her many years of service.

Mrs. Calhoun takes a brief respite from her other chores to make out the week's menu.

Both hands are busy as Mrs. Calhoun tries to keep up with the steady flow of students in the cafeteria line.

One of Mrs. Calhoun's many duties is to see that all equipment is functioning properly. Here she checks the ovens before starting to bake.

Shirley,

We sure have had some great times this year. And I'm glad I got to know you better. I'll never forget that day in the halls when Becky tried to pull something off. I could of shot her. I want to wish you the best of luck in your future and I hope you always. Take good care of your little brother. He's a pretty smart guy. Maybe this summer you, Jim, Billy and I can go on a picnic or something. Have a wild summer and be good. If ya trouble me, I'll be out of trouble and if ya can't be out of trouble name it after me! 1st.

I hope we have some classes together next year. I better sign off now. a friend always,

Puppy Love

Seniors Say "Farewell" to Four Memorable Years

Senior class officers Barry Benson (president), Susan Truckenbrod (secretary), Karen Fenwick (treasurer), and Carol Rasmussen (vice-president), with Mr. Gieske (advisor), soberly say good-by.

'Twas the night 'fore graduation, when up on the stage,
Just a janitor stirred as his last rounds he made.
He spared not a moment; went straight to his work,
Straightening chairs one by one with a jerk.
Diplomas he stacked on a table with care,
In hopes that Stan Ohlson soon would be there.
Though quiet as a shadow he mused all the while,
'Bout the '65 Seniors he reminisced with a smile.
He knew they were now nestled snug in their beds,
As he thought four years back at their small freshman heads.
How confused they had been! How little and meek!
Hallways and lockers to them had been Greek.
New friends and new interests had crowded their days,
Til old R.T.H.S. was no longer a maze.
Equations and X's in Algebra I
Had been so confusing, but Latin was fun.
The janitor'd followed them 'round with his mop;
Books, papers, and wrappings they so often dropped.
They were a bit better their next (sophomore) year.
Besides being neater, they got a class cheer.
That Frosh-Sophomore party was quite a success.
Leftover refreshments created distress.
Insect and flower collections when mused
Had made "105" a hazard to dust!

"You can't have my clipboard!"
says assistant librarian Susan Barnes as she searches the vertical file.

Junior time, prom time, concession stands, heat;
 The new mum sales record was one hard to beat.
 Decorating, the janitor'd helped in the gym.
 Thoughts of raising the maypole still terrified him.
 The night to remember! He recalled with a sigh.
 He'd watched as the glamorous couples waltzed by.
 Kids who had worked in old sweatshirts and jeans
 In formals and "tuxes" looked like kings and queens.
 This last year as seniors—on top of the world—
 They still waved a greeting as past him they swirled.
 Despite college forecasts, A.C.T., forms to fill,
 They won N.C.I.C. in sports—what a thrill!
 From Julius to Shylock and then to Macbeth,
 The English department sure read them to death.
 The days are so crowded! Where does the time go?
 From "freshies" to "seniors" the kids leap, not grow.
 Senior pictures, the banquet, the great senior play,
 And now graduation time just one night away.
 Just then on the gym steps arose such a clatter,
 He sprang to the door to see what was the matter.
 When what to his wondering eyes should appear
 But one miniature freshman on whose cheek was a tear.
 "My jacket's in my locker," he breathlessly sniffed.
 "If you let me go get it, I'll be back in a jiff."
 When he'd gotten his coat and gone happily away,
 The janitor locked R.T.H.S. for the day.
 He smiled—this youngster had just three years of strife,
 Before he, like these seniors, would step into life.
 He said, at the doorway, as he turned off the light,
 "Happy memories to all, and to all a good night."

Solid geometry student Herbert Jorstad demonstrates use of the opaque projector.

Steve Koontz, Steve Eber, Jim Carmichael, and Bob Helfer seem to be making a cake in physics class, although they're actually measuring molecules. Physics is an all male class . . .

Final Year Highlighted by Pictures, Banquet, Play

"Smile! Only one more class!" The five minute break between classes gives Sandy Lace and Jim Pinkston a chance to converse.

Charlie Peterson ends a four-year career as Chief Hole-Puncher.

. . . whereas Sandy Mattera has defied tradition and is pictured in her favorite habitat — the shop area.

Junior officers Ed DeCoursey (president), Jamie Thomas (vice-president), Sue Masters (secretary), and Ed Scott (treasurer), along with their advisor, Mr. Guio, eat the profits from the concession stand.

66'ers Strike It Rich . . . Break Mum Records . . .

Down in the Ogle County Valley, 213 old timers have given up their junior stakes. It seems that during the past nine months they have worked right hard enough to become eligible for senior claims.

In the beginning, the third-year prospectors took up U.S. History, English, Algebra II, chemistry, and other subjects. Many took heart to joining "lingo" clubs, Jesters, Key Club, Art Club, F.F.A., and G.A.A., while others musically inclined, met with the band, orchestra, or one of the choruses.

Those elected as Town Hall representatives on voting day were Ray Bergman, Mary Bruns, Bob Chadwick, Kalah Gustafson, Barb Jackson, Joan Jaeger, Parker King, Ellen McMullin, George Ohlson, Brian Piersma, Paul Quitno, and Beccy Sanford. At the same time, Ed DeCoursey (president), Jamie Thomas (vice-president), Sue Masters (secretary), and Ed Scott (treasurer), were chosen as presiding officials.

Then lo and behold! Gold, silver, and diamonds appeared; the class rings had finally arrived. Share owners everywhere rejoiced.

Soon after that, the old timers took a hankering to selling mums and set out determined to break all previous records. Mum chairman Diane Hutson, along with the class officers and numerous salesmen, hauled in eight hundred and twenty dollar-sized gold pieces, topping last year's strike by thirty dollars.

Led on by junior cheerleaders Linda Eckhardt, Diane

... Go Through Year With Flying Colors

Hendrickson, and Debby May, fans joined in the excitement of watching adventurers in football, cross country, basketball, wrestling, track, and baseball achieve well-deserved fame and success.

Homecoming time brought the nomination of Diane Hendrickson, Diane May, and Virginia Pierce and the selection of Diane as the class's reigning princess.

Pat Tomlinson and Sandra Fricker gained parts in the Jester play, "The Man Who Came to Dinner," while backstage the minds and hearts of other juniors clicked together to add to the play's success.

In the spring the junior class owners put on their prom, for which folks from all around turned out in fancy duds. About this time those striking it rich with good grades were honored with certificates of achievement, and many took part in the quizzes called P.S.A.T. and N.M.S.T.

The old timers may look back with pride onto their third year, but looking forward will make them strive evermore for what they have been seeking: For when the sparks flew and another wick was lighted, the junior class emerged into the world of seniors-to-be.

Sandy Lockner and Sharen Smith prepare an exhibit on Benjamin Franklin for English III.

Barry Williams, Eddie Wenzel, and classmates work hard to finish their masterpieces in Industrial Arts.

Juniors Barb Baker, Linda Ahlin, and Gary Johnson support their Democratic candidates and go "All the Way with L.B.J."

If they were 21, Bill Phillips, Ellen McMullin, and Brian Piersma would vote for Barry Goldwater. The election displays were prepared by students in the U.S. history and world history classes.

Gold, Silver, Diamonds Appear . . .

... Prospectors Receive Class Rings

Rosemary Dorland challenges Mr. Engel to a duel.

French III students Alice Caron and Ginny Pierce read French history and Paris Match, while Marlene Pullin, Janet Weinreich, Diana Somers, and Kathy Alcock prepare their lessons.

"Have you ever seen so many mums before!" exclaim Ed Scott, Ed DeCoursey, Diane Hutson, and Barry Williams. "Yes, every year!" answers Mr. Guio.

"A little oil never hurt anything," says Mr. Shoemaker to his attentive students, Jim Hart and Paul Holliday.

Sophomores Choose Their Big Wheels

Man! Let me tell you about my trip through Sophomore State with 244 fellow tourists!

After shifting into second gear in my faithful R.T.H.S., I joined the group of other second-year travelers and we started off, led by Frank Mattera (he organized this trip?) and Don Luxton, Frank's assistant. Belinda Carson watched our funds, and Charlene Berg handed out the itinerary.

The first few towns, Geometrytownne and Biology Rapids, were difficult to get through without first getting lost (as many of us found out), but with the help of experienced guides, we managed to pull out on schedule. On our next stop, English City, we saw the beautiful fountain of Composition Boulevard. It was near Grammar Avenue, and while it had no name, one could clearly see the nouns, pronouns, verbs, adjectives, adverbs, prepositions, conjunctions, and interjections that made up all those beautiful phrases from which all the water was spouting forth.

About the middle of November, we took a breather and visited the Haunted House Nite Club. Here we '67'ers put on a hop for the freshmen who, in our opinion, were still wet behind the ears. We also spent four days in Thanksgivingville and ten in Christmas Place.

Traversing Sophomore State, we found foreign towns such as Espanol, Francais, and Latina. Our visits to these places were filled with learning new words and phrases. We also discovered Home Economicsville, Industrial Arts Terrace, and many other sites of interest.

Advised by tourists who had been there before us, we made a trip to Semester Tests Heights in January. What an experience!

Traveling deeper into the state, we enjoyed such amusement parks as football, basketball, cross country, and wrestling. After reaching one corner of the state, we turned our R.T.H.S.'s around and headed upstate. Here we found the popular amusements were track and baseball, along with a smattering of golf and tennis. We stopped at many towns along the way, Easter City (where we spent five days) and Memorialburg, to name a few. At one of our first stops, P.E. Springs, we changed drivers; those who drove all semester switched with those who had never been behind a wheel before.

After rambling around for a while, we headed toward Semester Tests Heights again. There we turned in our R.T.H.S.'s for receipts from all the places we had visited. Next year we hope they'll be better. See you then!

. . . Shift Into Third

Mr. Kyler looks on while the freshman class officers Gretchen Sanderson (treasurer), Bill Vanstone (president), Bonnie Jackson (secretary), and Craig Boltman (vice-president) take advantage of Mr. Margheim's freshman-sophomore counseling program.

Class of '68 Docks at R.T.H.S. Port

"Attention!" All sophomores, juniors, and seniors took heed of the warning as the "Unsinkable '68" prepared to dock at "Seaport R.T.H.S." on September 1. With dread in their hearts, the upperclassmen saw 254 "freshies" land at the Seventh Street port.

As soon as the freshmen arrived, they were put to work on the usual first year subjects. Before trying to conquer them, however, those from the "68" had to find their way around the seemingly huge port. Since no self-respecting upperclassman gave the right directions to a "freshie," he had to blunder through the first few days hoping not to be late too many times. The freshmen started on their subjects in earnest when they finally discovered the correct classrooms. Algebraic equations, poetry, and verb conjugations became thoroughly jumbled together, but in a few weeks things were almost shipshape.

After finding their bearings, the newcomers united and elected Bill Vanstone to be crew captain. Also, Craig Boltman (first mate), Bonnie Jackson (purser), and Gretchen Sanderson (paymaster) were elected. Twelve crew members were chosen to join representatives from the other crews to help govern R.T.H.S. These were Jeff Boyer, James Fredrickson, John Gibson, David Gieske, Paul Gilbert, Christine Kasper, Tom Lepperd, Susan Manning, Barbara Mully, Rick Troop, Gregory Werdin, and Margie Woodard.

Soon the freshmen became established at R.T.H.S. and plunged into a variety of activities. For instance, the musical members of the crew had an opportunity to join one of the vocal or instrumental groups. Many of the "'68'ers" joined F.H.A., F.F.A., F.T.A., H.C.C., G.A.A., and other clubs of interest.

The athletic members showed their prowess by acquiring a good record in the various sports. Three girls in the class won their share of the limelight: Bonnie Jackson (cheerleader), and Kathy Askvig and Cheri Linnemeier (twirlers).

About this time, all received their first pay checks. Some were unhappy with the net amount earned, and thus decided to work for a raise.

At Homecoming, Kathie Boelkes, Bonnie Jackson, and Gretchen Sanderson competed for a position in the "Sea Queen's Court." The male members of the crew elected Gretchen freshman princess.

As time went by, the year grew increasingly better, and before realizing it, the freshmen were granted a three-months leave by Commander-in-Chief Peterson and promoted to the rank of sophomores.

Under the leadership of Bob Burkholder (president), Charles Peterson (vice-president), Ellen Gibson (secretary), and Bob Malone (treasurer), the 1964-65 Student Council was an active and effective governing body. With the help of Mr. Maris and Mrs. Thomas, advisors, the forty-eight members carried out projects to improve the council and to serve the school.

The group started the year by continuing its traditions of planning the Homecoming celebration and collecting donations from the student body for Christmas gifts to St. Vincent's and Rosencrance orphanages. Highlighting the council's activities, the members and Mr. Bennett worked with the school's talented to present the annual Variety Revue. Proceeds were donated to the foreign student fund.

The council also joined the Illinois Association of Student Councils. Through this statewide organization, the club is able to share ideas with other schools.

This year the members worked more with the administration and faculty to help solve school problems such as crowded hallways. They began a monitoring system to help the teachers during the lunch period and organized committees to help solve student problems. This year's council worked to represent the student body more directly and to serve the school more effectively.

This year marked the second year of Rochelle High School's participation in the American Field Service program. The program is associated with the adult chapter of the Rochelle A.F.S.

R.T.H.S. welcomed Nick Ward as the second foreign student in the A.F.S. program. Nick came from Barbados, an island in the West Indies. He was born in England, however. During the course of the year, Nick participated in various club activities, attended games, and became a part of Rochelle. He was graduated with the class of '65.

The A.F.S. club welcomed all students to participate in its activities, including tours of several Rochelle industries. By planning speaking engagements for the foreign student, A.F.S. fulfilled its goal to bring about a better understanding among nations and their people.

Bob Malone, chosen as an A.F.S. exchange student, was sent to the Philippine Islands last summer. While living with a Philippine family, he learned about their customs, ideas, and way of life. His host family, in turn, became acquainted with Bob's American outlook.

This year R.T.H.S. juniors showed enthusiasm in applying to go abroad as Bob did. Beccy Sanford and Susan Masters were chosen from the Rochelle applicants. The headquarters in New York are now considering each girl, and the results will be announced later in the spring.

Key Club Completes Year of Civic Service

The Rochelle Key Club, a service organization for sophomore, junior, and senior boys, completed another banner year. The weekly meetings held at 7 a.m. on Friday were a big part of their activities. Aside from discussing business at these meetings, they had interesting speakers from all walks of life.

Although the Key Club is a school organization with a faculty advisor, Mr. Nutt, it worked closely with the Kiwanis Club and their Key Club advisor, Mr. Howard Smith. Two boys had dinner at the Kiwanis meeting every Wednesday, and men from Kiwanis were present at every Key Club meeting. By this relationship the boys met some of the businessmen and civic leaders of their community.

The Key Club performed a variety of service projects. Their biggest project was providing volunteer services every Sunday afternoon at Dixon State School. The boys spent two hours playing games with young boy residents and taking them for walks. Another big project was the statewide Key Club soap drive for Dixon State School. The Rochelle boys received and took to Dixon three tons of soap to be distributed to the residents at Christmas. Key Clubbers aided the high school by conducting both Student Council and class officer elections.

In fulfilling international requirements, the boys had inter-club meetings with Key Clubs from other schools. Barry Benson, lieutenant governor for the division, was responsible for arranging these meetings.

Key Club officers this year were Bob Malone (president), Dennis Burke (vice-president), Charles Peterson (secretary), Dick Wickness (corresponding secretary), Paul Weinhold (treasurer), Barry Benson (lieutenant governor), Dennis Greffe (senior class director), and Bob Chadwick, junior class director.

Key Club officers (STANDING) Charles Peterson, Paul Weinhold, and Barry Benson, and (SITTING) Dick Wickness, Bob Malone, and Dennis Burke directed the club's activities.

R.C.er's Tune in

To teach its interested members how to build and operate their own amateur radio stations is the aim of the R.T.H.S. Radio Club. Under the supervision of advisor Mr. Springmire, members learn the theory and electronics of the radio. When the boys pass the Federal Communications Commission's test, they earn their licenses and thus may own and operate their own amateur radios.

The 1964-65 officers for the Radio Club were Charles Maris (president), John Keene (vice-president), and Robert Bain (secretary-treasurer).

The Camera Club was organized to help students interested in photography learn the basic techniques involved. The group met every other Tuesday of each month. Each member gave a discussion at some time during the year on some area of photography.

The officers, who were under the supervision of Mr. Kyler, were Richard Page (president), Jim Haselton (vice-president), and John Patsch (secretary-treasurer).

Their work required a knowledge and understanding of library procedures. In turn, these students felt that they were helped in their studies by the knowledge gained in this library work. Also, they gained a sense of satisfaction from helping fellow students find special material.

Projectionists Reel in Another Year's Service

"While the Projectionists Club is primarily a service organization, the experience members obtain is valuable because of the increasing popularity of audio-visual equipment in the home," commented Mr. Nelson, club advisor.

Members learn to operate various kinds of equipment and then assist teachers. Novices are taught by experienced members to operate the machines, then Mr. Nelson checks them out. Yearly the projectionists present R.T.H.S. with a piece of audio-visual equipment to help future members better serve their school.

Spring Initiation Banquet

Climaxes Varsity Club Year

Officers for the '64-'65 "V" Club were Paul Weinhold (treasurer), Carson Brooks (sergeant-at-arms), Jim May (president), Gary Reineck (vice-president), and Tom Graves (secretary).

Each Rochelle Township High School Varsity Club member considers proper school representation and good sportsmanship as his obligations. In order to become part of this organization, a boy must have earned a major "R" in any of the school's interscholastic sports, either as an athlete or manager.

Guided by supervisor and head football coach Edward Bender, the "V" Club ushered at all the home basketball games and held its annual spring banquet.

They're off and running! The Girl's Athletic Association members are at it again! The pack got off to a quick start at the beginning of the year with the first bell. On September 10 the group was off with a "get acquainted" picnic, followed quickly by a Rockford workshop.

On they swept to the playdays at Dixon and Mt. Morris. Somehow the girls managed to squeeze in their Monday and Thursday night sports of hiking, speed-away, and tennis, with a bit of volleyball and the Championship Faculty game near the far turn of semesters. They swept into the turn with bowling and came out with an alumni night and basketball. This was followed by the initiation of new G.A.A. members.

The group dashed into spring and the sports of aerial darts, badminton, and softball, and pounded into the home stretch with the installation of officers and presentation of awards accompanied by the spring playday.

The club was jockeyed through the '64-'65 season by Carol Rasmussen (president), Pat Highland (vice-president), Pat Tomlinson (secretary-treasurer), Marge Crawford (points chairman), Joyce Andrew (senior representative), Kathy Wonser (junior representative), Jane Carney (sophomore representative), and Marcia Schaffer (freshman representative). The year was financed by the coat-check after the Belvidere game and the candy sales of November and December.

Spaniards Work on Realia; Get Results

Thirty-nine crew members and their executive officers Rick Wyatt (president), Vicki Hanson (vice-president), Charlene Berg (secretary), Patty Frye (treasurer), and Loren Kroesche (sergeant-at-arms—parliamentarian) successfully guided the R.T.H.S. Spanish ship through the Sea of '64-'65. The ship's first storm, amending the club's constitution, came at the start of the voyage. The officers, with the aid of Mr. Stahlheber, advisor, proposed a plan which the members adopted.

This year the Spanish Club accepted the responsibility of underwriting all expenses of the newly-formed Rochelle chapter of the Hispanic Honor Society, and in order to meet these obligations, the club sponsored two school dances. The first, "Deejay," was held on October 9 with a disc-jockey from Rockford entertaining and M.C.'ing the program. The second dance was held on February 12.

Another major project of the Spanish Club was the realia collection. The members wrote letters to Hispanic countries and members donated items in order to substantially create a collection which is anticipated to increase each year. Such items as money, castanets, and Spanish documents compose the collection.

This year Le Cercle Francais formally adopted a constitution and by-laws, thus setting up a system for the election of officers, membership in the club, and computation of points. The club decided to meet twice a month, with one meeting devoted to business and one to a program such as seeing Mrs. McMahon's slides of France or "Zero" (French bingo).

The club also sponsored a dance, "Swingin' with Ole St. Nick," after the December 19 basketball game. On December 21 they caroled around the Rochelle area, rejoicing at the warm (30°) weather.

January found the club celebrating with the Trier Les Rois ceremony, in which a bean is placed in a cake for the boys and another in a cake for the girls. The finders of the beans, Margaret Carney and John Peterson, were king and queen. In the spring the group took its annual excursion to Chicago.

Officers elected for the 1964-65 year were Valerie Heitter (president), Paul Quitno (vice-president), Carol Hummel (secretaire), Carolyn Zack (tresorier), and Sheryl Forest (chef des points).

Leading the French Club meetings were (STANDING) Carol Hummel (secretary), Sheryl Forest (points chairman), Paul Quitno (vice-president), Carolyn Zack (treasurer), and (SEATED) Valerie Heitter (president).

Latin Club Explores Roman Culture

Miss Hayes turns in confusion as Latin Club members take over in preparation for the Toga Twist.

Latin Club, the members of which include present and former Latin students, is designed to help young "Romans" learn more about the customs of the classical Roman Empire, and to let them have fun while they do it. Guiding the activities were Miss Hayes (advisor), Steve Broitzman (consul), Margie Woodard (vice-consul), Ruth Male (scriba), and Ginny Woodard (quaestor).

Two money-raising projects were initiated. "Toga Twist" was held after the Ottawa football game, November 6. Latin Club also ran the check room at the January 30 basketball game with Oregon. Proceeds were saved for the Roman Banquet.

This last event of the Latin Club year occurred in spring. Stola and pala-clad maidens and toga-wrapped boys reclined on wrestling mats spread on the cafeteria floor. Freshman slaves served chicken, bread, and vegetables, which were eaten with spoons and fingers. Fingerbowls helped considerably. The traditional highlight of the banquet was the blessing of the "wine," and after a dessert of cake, the well-fed Romans put away their finery for another year.

Ruth Male (scriba), Margie Woodard (vice-consul), and Ginny Woodard (quaestor) look over the shoulder of Steve Broitzman (consul) at a copy of Fogl Ladin, a Swiss paper written in a Latin dialect.

"Act well your part . . ." This beginning to the Jester Club's motto explains quickly and easily the asset which made all of the Jester activities so successful this year.

"The Man Who Came to Dinner" started the 1964-65 year with a bang. Jesters on stage and behind the curtains made the play a smashing success.

Students who were interested in extra speech activities proved their abilities by entering interstate speech contests. Along with single speech participants went the cast of the one-act play "Passion, Poison, and Petrifaction."

Encouraged by club advisor Mr. Bennett, the 1964-65 officers also contributed to the making of a successful year. Officers were Don Peck (president), Susan Masters (vice-president), Nancy Fredrickson (secretary), Tom Loeftgren (treasurer), and Karen Linnemeier (points chairman).

Members having a total of at least five points were eligible to go to Chicago to see a stage play.

The National Thespian Society of Rochelle High School is an honorary dramatics club whose purpose is to further interest in drama. It is composed of Jesters who, by hard work and ambition, have accumulated a total of at least 35 points. Each year an initiation ceremony, followed by a dinner, is given for new and old members. 1964-65 Thespian officers were Don Peck (president), Susan Masters (vice-president), and Nancy Fredrickson (secretary).

After all is said and done well, by Thespians and Jesters alike, the club motto can be concluded . . . "therein all the honor lies."

Rochelle Future Homemakers "Stir Up"

According to club members, the Future Homemakers of America, under the direction of Mrs. Himes, Mrs. Warren, and student teacher, Mrs. Choate, again had a busy but enjoyable and prosperous year. The first order of business was the election of officers. Those elected were Jill Johnson (president), Janice Remmers (vice-president), Kathy Deets (second vice-president), Marlene Pullin (secretary), Marilyn Kersten (treasurer), Lella McNamara (vice-president of projects), Kathy Hunley (vice-president of public relations), Kathy Reints (vice-president of recreation), Judy Schene (historian), JoAnn Vanstone (degrees chairman), and Joyce Highstreet (points chairman).

The motto "Our Attitudes—Our Ambitions—Our Actions" served as a basis for the recreational and educational activities in which Future Homemakers participated. The Fall Rally at Northern Illinois University, followed by a trip to the Dixon State Hospital, were the first of the year's activities.

"Snowflake Twirl" was the highlight of recreational projects. Queen Joanne Caspers ruled over the dance with Marilyn Kersten (junior attendant), Kathy Reints (sophomore attendant), and Linda Leathers (freshman attendant) as her court. Other activities in which the club participated were the annual card sales for financing the Chicago trip, Heart Sister Week, Spaghetti Supper, F.H.A.-F.F.A. party, style show and tea, and the annual trip to Chicago.

H.C.C. Serves School, Community . . .

Health Careers Club, under the direction of Miss Parks and Mr. Cooley, completed another year of service to the Rochelle area. Carol Page (president), Linda Ahlin (vice-president), Rosemary Dorland (secretary), Joyce Andrew (treasurer), Jeri Watson (Candy Striper chairman), Mary Gorski (hospital hostess chairman), Don Vogel (Americana chairman), and Nancy Kingsbury (reporter) guided the activities of the past year. Two purposes of the H.C.C. organization were 1) to offer opportunity for interested students to investigate medical careers, and 2) to serve the community, especially in medical aspects.

In December the members busied themselves by making Christmas decorations for the Rochelle Hospital. January and February found the members involved in the March of Dimes drive. H.C.C.'ers found time to tour the Dixon State School, and plans were carried out for the annual rose sale.

Providing volunteer workers every week for the Dixon State School was an added feature of the club's program this year. The Candy Stripers and hostesses worked at the hospital, and girls as well as boys worked at the Americana Nursing Home.

H.C.C. officers Don Vogle (Americana chairman), Nancy Kingsbury (reporter), Joyce Andrew (treasurer), Rosemary Dorland (secretary), Mary Gorski (hospital hostess chairman), and Jeri Watson (Candy Striper chairman) surround Carol Page (president). F.F.A. Develops Leadership, Emphasizes Thrift

F.F.A. officers this year were Harold Alberts (sentinel), Harold Erdahl (reporter), Larry Ohlinger (president), Mike Schimanski (secretary), and Richard Page (treasurer).

The primary purposes of the Future Farmers of America are the development of agricultural leadership, citizenship, cooperation, and thrift. These purposes are executed by means of the program of work, which consisted of eight committees. These committees were supervised farming, conduct of meetings, community service, scholarship, cooperation activities, earning and savings, leadership, and recreation.

Some of the activities in which the Rochelle F.F.A. chapter participated were grain, livestock, and soil judging and a visit to the International Livestock Show in Chicago. The year was brought to a climax with the Parent-Son Banquet. Members at this time received awards they had earned during the year.

F.T.A.'ers Gain Insight Into Teaching

The Rochelle Chapter of Future Teachers of America gives members the opportunity to acquaint themselves with the various aspects of teaching—theory and practical application. Through the guidance of the club's advisors, Mr. Armstrong and Mr. Margheim, the students learned theory; through the teacher-help program they learned practical application.

At the beginning of the school year students were assigned to help teachers. The F.T.A.'er helped with such routine, but essential, duties as filing, correcting, and grading papers. For every fifteen minutes of work, the member received one point. Practical application was also gained by juniors and seniors who visited local schools to observe teaching methods.

The Future Teachers sponsored a dance and a check-room in order to carry on the tradition of giving deserving seniors fifty dollar scholarships.

Members attended a regional workshop and state convention. Near the end of the year, a "F.T.A. Family Night" supper was given to introduce parents. Presiding over the F.T.A. were Reba Mully (president), Paul Rewerts (vice-president), Ellen Gibson (secretary), Gae Schabacker (treasurer), and Doris Johnson (points chairman). Also assisting were Cheryl Wire (bulletin board chairman), Judy Larabee (historian), and Betty Vagle and Sylvia Shaffer (co-chairmen of public relations).

"Calling All Girls"

If one club has four officers (all of whom are boys), twelve members (all of whom are male upperclassmen), and one purpose (to discuss problems involving mathematics), what is the name of the organization? The answer is obvious to a member of Math Club who is used to solving tough brain teasers.

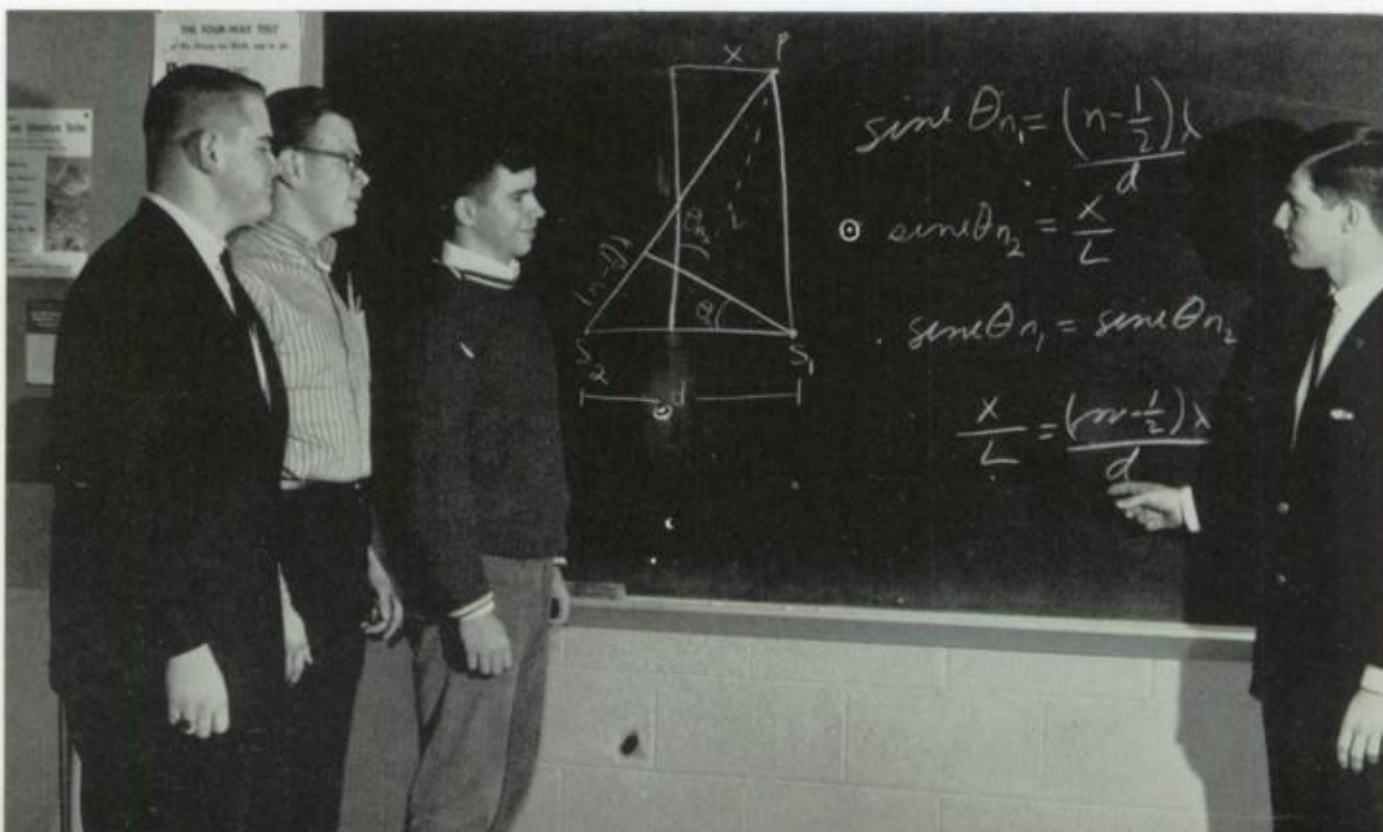

Every Thursday dedicated mathematicians gathered in advisor Mr. Yenerich's room to wrestle with problems. Besides these weekly meetings, a field trip was taken to the computer division of California Packing Corporation. According to junior Ray Bergman, the outing was "tremendous."

Math Club went commercial in '65 and bought pins for each of its members. Since no dues were collected, money for the pins came out of a mysterious treasury inherited from previous years.

Serving as Math Club officers for 1964-65 were Charles Peterson (president), Bob Burkholder (vice-president), Ed Scott (secretary), and Ray Bergman (treasurer). Secretary Ed Scott considered this year's accomplishments numerous, but voiced a plea for next year's club—"Girls Are Wanted!"

Math Club officers Ray Bergman (treasurer), Ed Scott (secretary), and Bob Burkholder (vice-president) watch Charles Peterson (president) solve one of Math Club's easier problems.

Art Club officers David Krug (president) and Penny Druker (secretary) show a picture to Carol Webber (vice-president) and Sandra Dusenberry (treasurer). This picture, painted by David Krug, was later placed in an art exhibit.

Debbie Lowenberg and Theo Buckley display the Art Club's main project, "Raftsmen Playing Cards," to Larry Lund. The picture was donated to the school by the club.

The purpose of the R.T.H.S. Art Club is to offer students opportunities to develop understanding and appreciation of the various visual arts and to be of service to the school and community.

This year the Art Club members, guided by Mr. Kruger (advisor) and club officers David Krug (president), Carol Webber (vice-president), Penny Druker (secretary), and Sandy Dusenberry (treasurer) raised the money for, purchased, and framed a large color reproduction of a famous 19th century American painting, "Raftsmen Playing Cards," by George Bingham. The picture was presented as a gift to the high school. The Art Club also gave programs of projected reproductions of paintings, sculpture, architecture, and other art products.

Exhibits of creative art work done by students in the high school art department were planned, arranged, and removed by Art Club members. Excursions to other cities to view the art exhibits in their galleries were a pleasant as well as educational attraction for club members.

Ro-To-Hi-Life Reaches Its Thirtieth Year of Service

The Ro-To-Hi-Life began its thirtieth year of service to R.T.H.S. students with its first publication for the 1964-65 school year. Its editorial board was composed of five new editors, each one responsible for a particular section of the paper. Beccy Sanford became editor of news; Judy Countryman, features; Bob Helfer, editorials; George Ohlson, sports; and Diana Schultz, copy.

Realizing that the majority of the staff was seniors, Mrs. Stotmeister, advisor, conducted a journalism short course designed to train younger students to replace these seniors the following year. The Ro-To staff was aided in its effort to publish an effective school paper by the English IV journalism class.

Two editors, Beccy Sanford and George Ohlson, attended the Sixth Annual Seminar for High School Editors in Chicago on October 10, where they had an opportunity to discuss various problems of editing a school paper.

The main goal of a school paper is to present the view of students, and the Ro-To-Hi-Life achieves this by being, unlike some school papers published by seniors only, an all-school paper, having a staff composed of members of all four classes. The paper also helps to inform and unify a growing student body and to present an opportunity for students to become familiar with various phases of journalism. The staff, the editors, and the advisor combine their efforts to present the Ro-To, a view of Rochelle Township High School Life.

Editors Tom Morrissey, Gary Kehm, Drenda Hicks, Ellen Gibson, Margaret Carney, Debby May, and Janet Weinreich gather to show the basic steps in publishing the Tatler.

"Who is that boy?" . . .

. . . wonders Valerie Heitter as Linda Horter, Dawn Smith, and Karen Fenwick help identify pictures for the Tatler.

Deadlines Press Tatler Staff Into Frantic Efforts

Using a calendar theme to portray the R.T.H.S. school year, twenty-six staff members and their advisor, Mrs. McMahon met daily during fifth period to produce the 1965 Tatler. This year's work began early in September with a training program designed to teach yearbook procedures to novice staff members and to reinforce these procedures for Tatler veterans.

November, December, January, and February were frantic months as the staff members organized picture-taking days, wrote and copy-read cutlines and copy, identified pictures, drew lay-outs, and transferred all this to triplicate copies in an effort to meet yearbook deadlines. Directing these essential activities were the Tatler editors: Margaret Carney (organizations), Ellen Gibson (faculty and administration), Drenda Hicks (senior section), Gary Kehm and Tom Morrissey (sports), Debby May (classes), and Janet Weinreich (activities).

Any high school annual is essentially a history book which relates the events of a certain period of time. The 1965 Tatler staff has strived to produce not only this, but a yearbook which will provide wonderful memories of this year for each student at Rochelle Township High School.

Once again the R.T.H.S. music department has presented a championship performance under the direction of Mr. Willard Gieske, Mr. Charles Engel, and Mr. Robert Erbes. From the first note of music to the last, the year was filled with both accomplishment and enjoyment.

The concert band braved rain, wind, and cold to present halftime entertainment at all home football games. Basketball fans, too, were entertained at halftimes by this musical group. In addition, the band participated in the annual Christmas, winter, spring, and summer concerts.

The orchestra performed first at the Jester play, and continued its schedule by appearing for the Christmas, winter, spring and orchestra-choruses' concerts.

The choir, Freshman girls' chorus, varsity girls' chorus, and boys' chorus made their first appearance at the Christmas concert. These groups also performed at the orchestra-choruses' concert, winter, and spring concerts.

This year the choir adopted new costumes—white blouses and cranberry red skirts for the girls and navy blazers for the boys. This attire was donned for informal appearances such as halftime entertainment at basketball games.

For the many freshmen who played in the varsity band, incorrectly tuned instruments, slippery mouthpieces, and splitting reeds, made playing with a high school group a frustrating but rewarding experience.

Despite the seemingly hopeless situation, the varsity band did produce a sound which was entirely musical and performed at five concerts.

The various musical groups combined efforts in November to participate in the conference music festival at Mendota and the district all-state music festival at Ottawa. Spring brought the music department's auditions, followed by the solo and ensemble contest on March 13.

In May the music department sponsored an evening program by the University of Illinois band, and the musical year was concluded by the spring festival at which awards were distributed.

The 1964 Homecoming . . .

A pep rally, a skit by the senior girls, and enthusiastic cheering set the stage for the 88th Homecoming celebration at R.T.H.S. The 26-6 victory over the Geneseo Maple Leafs also helped to keep the spirits high.

At halftime of the varsity football game, the queen and princess candidates were escorted onto the field. After much suspense, the royal court was revealed. Those chosen to reign at the 1964 Homecoming were Queen Valerie Heitter, King Dick Wickness, junior Diane Hendrickson, sophomore Nancy Gibbs, and freshman Gretchen Sanderson.

At the dance James Bohart and his band provided the music which helped to make this Homecoming the best ever.

LEFT: The royal couple was crowned and everyone was relieved as the king, queen, and candidates made their traditional ride around the field. RIGHT: King Dick and Queen Val lead off the royal dance.

The royal court and their dates waltzed to a dance led by the new king and queen.

Reigning supreme over the 1964 Homecoming were Queen Val Heitter and King Dick Wickness.

Brooks, Reineck Earn All-State; Others Honored

Coach Ed Bender's powerful and experienced Hubs racked up their third straight N.C.I.C. Southwest Division title. The Hubs opened the season with their twenty-first consecutive victory by overpowering arch rival Sycamore 26-12. The Hubs moved on to down their next six opponents. The final test of the season came with the Northeast champs, Ottawa. The Hubs defeated the Pirates by a score of 40-21, unofficially proving Rochelle the true champion of the N.C.I.C.

The most valuable player award, the Hackett Trophy, went to Gary Reineck. Jim Manning and Jim May shared the Ellis Trophy for sportsmanship.

All-State honors went to Carson Brooks in the Chicago American and Rockford Morning Star, and to Gary Reineck in the Chicago Daily News and Champaign News-Gazette. Larry Herring received Special Mention in the Chicago Daily News, and Honorable Mention in the Chicago American and the Rockford Morning Star. Jim May, Dave Olson, Larry Johnson, Bob Chadwick, and Jack Case received Honorable Mention in the Chicago Daily News.

Halfback Larry Herring jars a Dixon defender as he gains twenty yards.

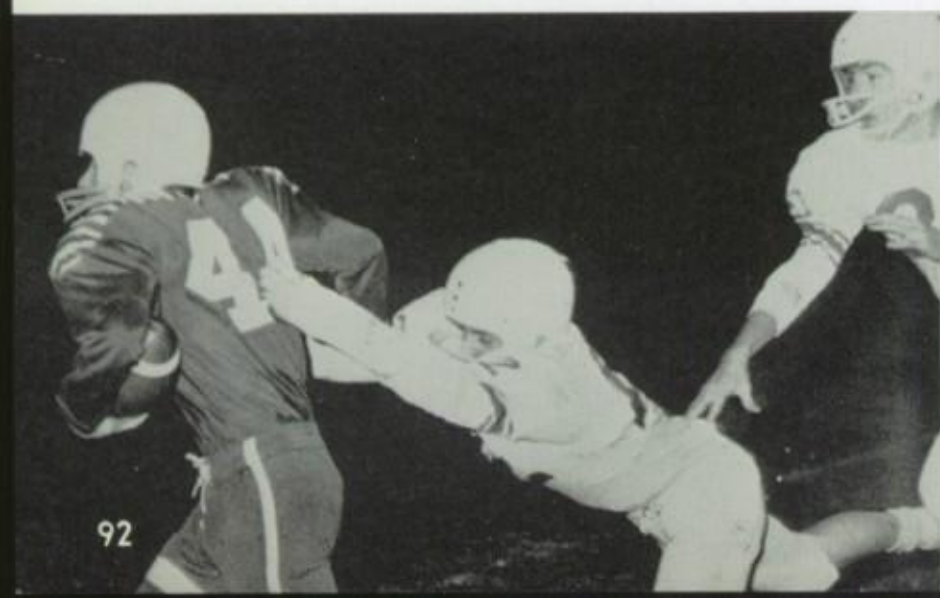

Hub "Bandits" Pat Garinger, Gary Reineck, Carson Brooks, Larry Johnson, and Dave Gilbert zero in on an opponent.

Hublets Post 7-1-0 Record Work Pays Off

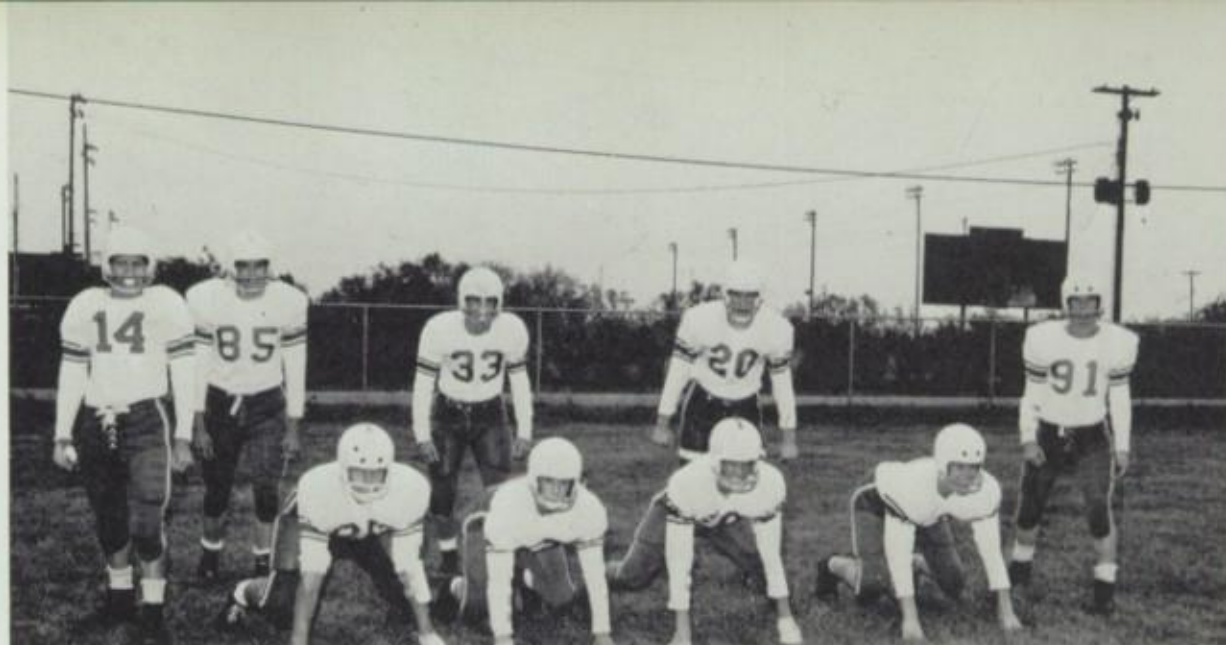

The Hublets combined a strong defense with a powerful offense to post a record of seven wins and one loss for the 1964 season. The direction of Coach Lukehart and Coach Skoglund plus the leadership of co-captains Buddy Allemang and Bill Ewbank added up to victory.

The Hublets opened the season by defeating Sycamore by a 20-7 score. They kept rolling strong, beating Dixon 20-0. The following week the Hublets edged Rock Falls 14-13. They decided the one point difference was too close, and the next week the Hublets ran over Mendota 40-0. On Homecoming night the Hublets were dealt their only defeat by Geneseo, 12-0. They took revenge on Princeton by winning 20-0. The Hublet defense held Princeton to one first down. Then the little Hubs went on to beat a big Hall team 12-7. The Hublets ended the season by beating a previously undefeated Ottawa team 20-6.

The Hublets were small, but they made up for their lack of size with a great amount of fight and desire. The boys worked as a team and not as individuals. Their record shows that their work paid off.

Hublet Gene Reid bombs through for another touchdown.

The sophomore defensive unit (standing) John Pearson, Paul Lieving, Bill Ewbank, Barry Klewin, Don Luxton, and (kneeling) Duane Herrmann, Jim Truckenbrod, Kevin Stotmeister, and David Johnson held their opponents to 45 points.

"Come on, Dave, be careful. I'm on your side!"

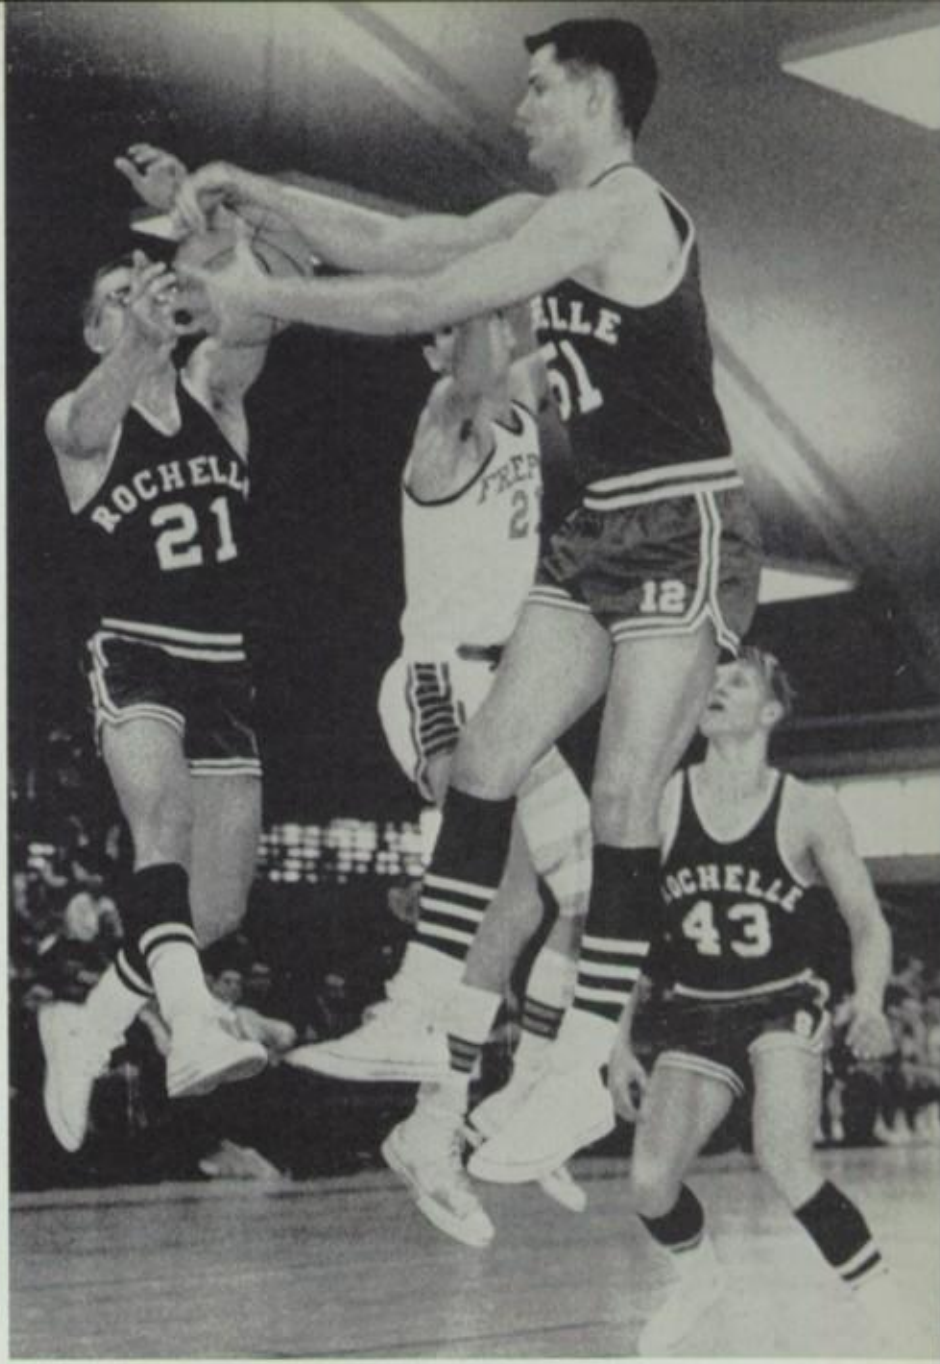

LEFT: "Hey, buddy, the ball's behind you!"
RIGHT: Hubs Harlan Richards, Dave Olson, and Gary Frakes protect the ball from Princeton players.

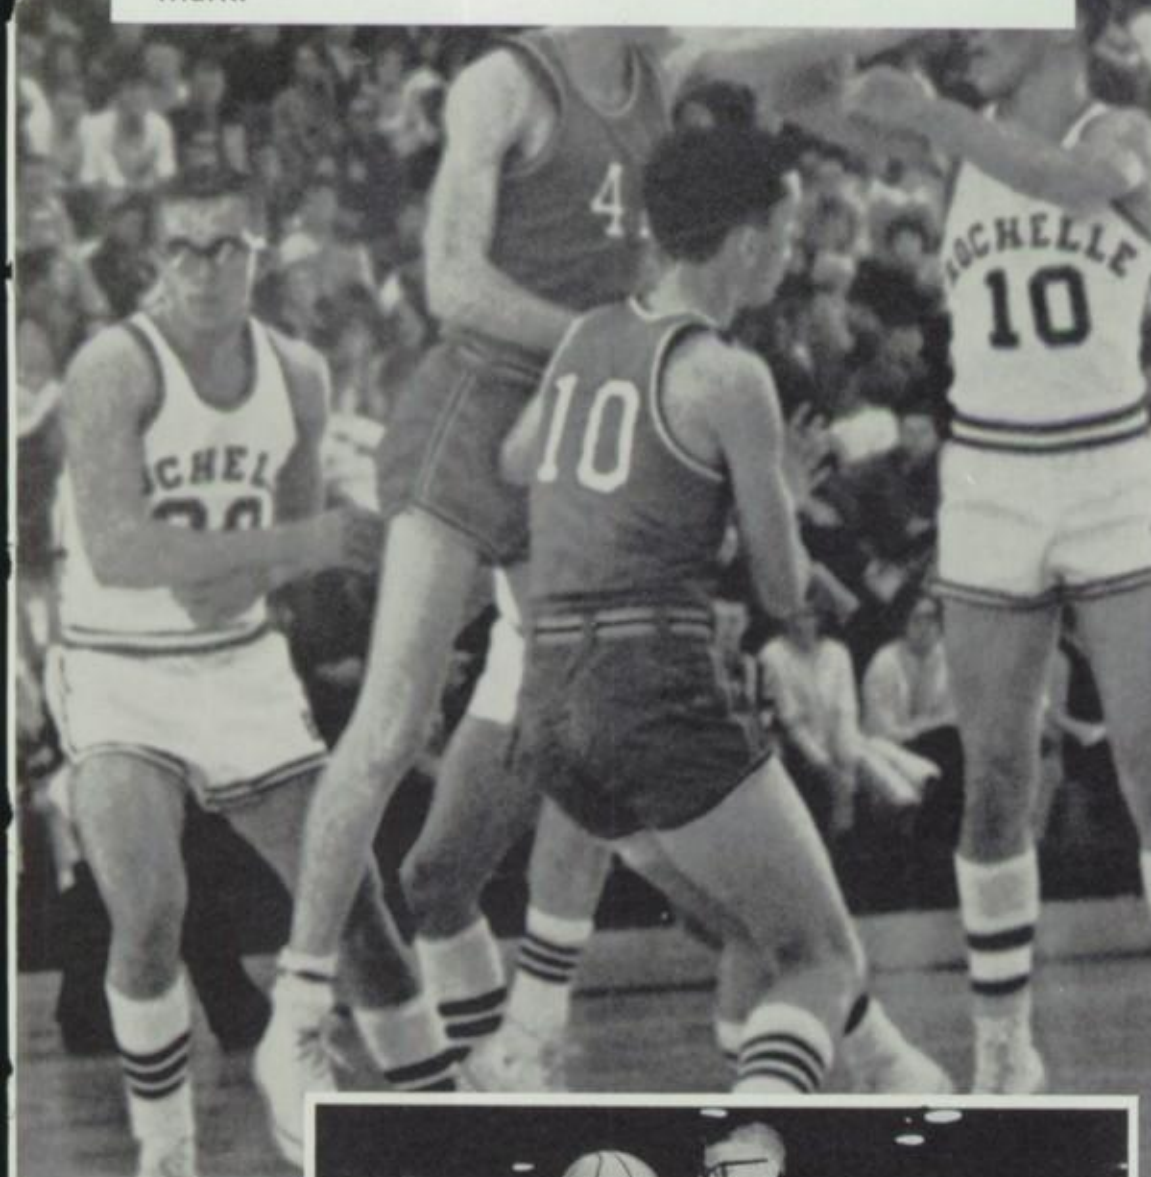

After opening the season with an impressive 65-55 victory over a strong Mt. Morris five, Coach Romaine's boys added consecutive victories over Shabbona, Dixon, and Geneseo before losing their first conference tilt at Kewanee 53-64. They came back the next night with an 83-73 victory over Belvidere.

Entering the DeKalb Holiday Tournament with a 5-1 record, they defeated St. Charles 80-56. In the next game, however, Freeport, the eventual champs, dropped the Hubs 73-54.

The Hubs broke their seven-game losing skein January 30 in a thrilling 54-52 victory over Oregon. The Hubs ended their see-saw season by winning four of the last six games, entering regional play at DeKalb with an overall 10-10 record and a 5-6 conference mark.

Hubs Gary Kehm and Dave Olson grab the ball in the Freeport game as Paul Erickson looks on.

Hublets Strive for Victories

Coach Schutte's Hublets started the 1964-65 season right with a 63-36 decision from Mt. Morris. The following night they ran over Shabbona 58-24. However, they were downed in their first two conference trials by Dixon and Geneseo. The first conference win came when the little Hubs defeated Kewanee 57-27. The Hublet five lost to Ottawa, but slipped by LaSalle-Peru 53-49.

The following week they lost to Rock Falls, but bounced back to trim Sycamore 42-36. During the remainder of the season, the Hublets won five of their last seven games, ending the season with a respectable 12-6 season mark.

Paul Lieving, Lyle Ranken, Ken Peck, Dan Brown, Don Luxton, and Don Allemang were the backbone of the team, and they were assisted by a strong bench.

Individuals Spark Wrestling Team

Even though the '64-65 grapplers did not fulfill expected hopes, outstanding performances were given by co-captains Terry Egland and Harold West, as well as by junior Tim Heitter. West capped his senior year by scoring the most team points.

In conference competition, West and Heitter both took seconds, while Mike Dailey won third and Terry Egland took fourth in their respective weight classes.

Heitter and Egland continued by each taking a second place in the district meet at Rockford Guilford, thereby qualifying for the sectional at Palatine. West, however, earned fourth place in district competition. At the sectional Heitter and Egland failed to qualify.

Harriers Run for Honors

1964-65 was truly a year for firsts for the Rochelle cross country team.

The mighty Harriers won the N.C.I.C. conference title this year, and had a perfect record of twelve wins and no losses in dual meets.

For the first time in R.T.H.S. history, a trophy was awarded to the runner with the highest number of points. Bob Hopper, with a total of 161 points, earned this trophy. He also set a new course record for Rochelle; he made the run in 10:05.

Led by co-captains Bob Hopper and Harold West, the cross country team achieved state honors for the first time. In district competition, the team finished second, enabling Rochelle to compete in the state meet. At Champaign, the Harriers made a fine showing, finishing tenth out of 24 schools.

They're off! But how will they finish?

A typical Hub finish has Bob and Jim Hopper, Tim Heitter, Harold West, and Bob Furjanic well in the lead.

Rochelle Administration

Directs Course of "Hub"

Throughout School Year

Superintendent Leroy R. Peterson pauses from his demanding routine to re-examine a past issue of the school Tatler.

Assistant principal Harold F. Maris confers with athletic director William E. Helms in mapping out the athletic schedule.

The school board members Dr. Russell W. Zack (secretary), Charles Gustafson, Stanley W. Ohlson (president), Mary T. Carney, Arvene R. Hill, Gilbert T. Keefer, and Orland A. Neidlinger inspect some of the work that has been done by students in the science department. The board concerns itself not only with finance—but with the school's curriculum, activities, and facilities.

Office Staff Struggles

With Increasing Enrollment

Greatly needed assistance to the office staff is provided by Mary Anderson.

Among her various duties as Mr. Peterson's private secretary, Willie Mae Parsons types scores of letters daily.

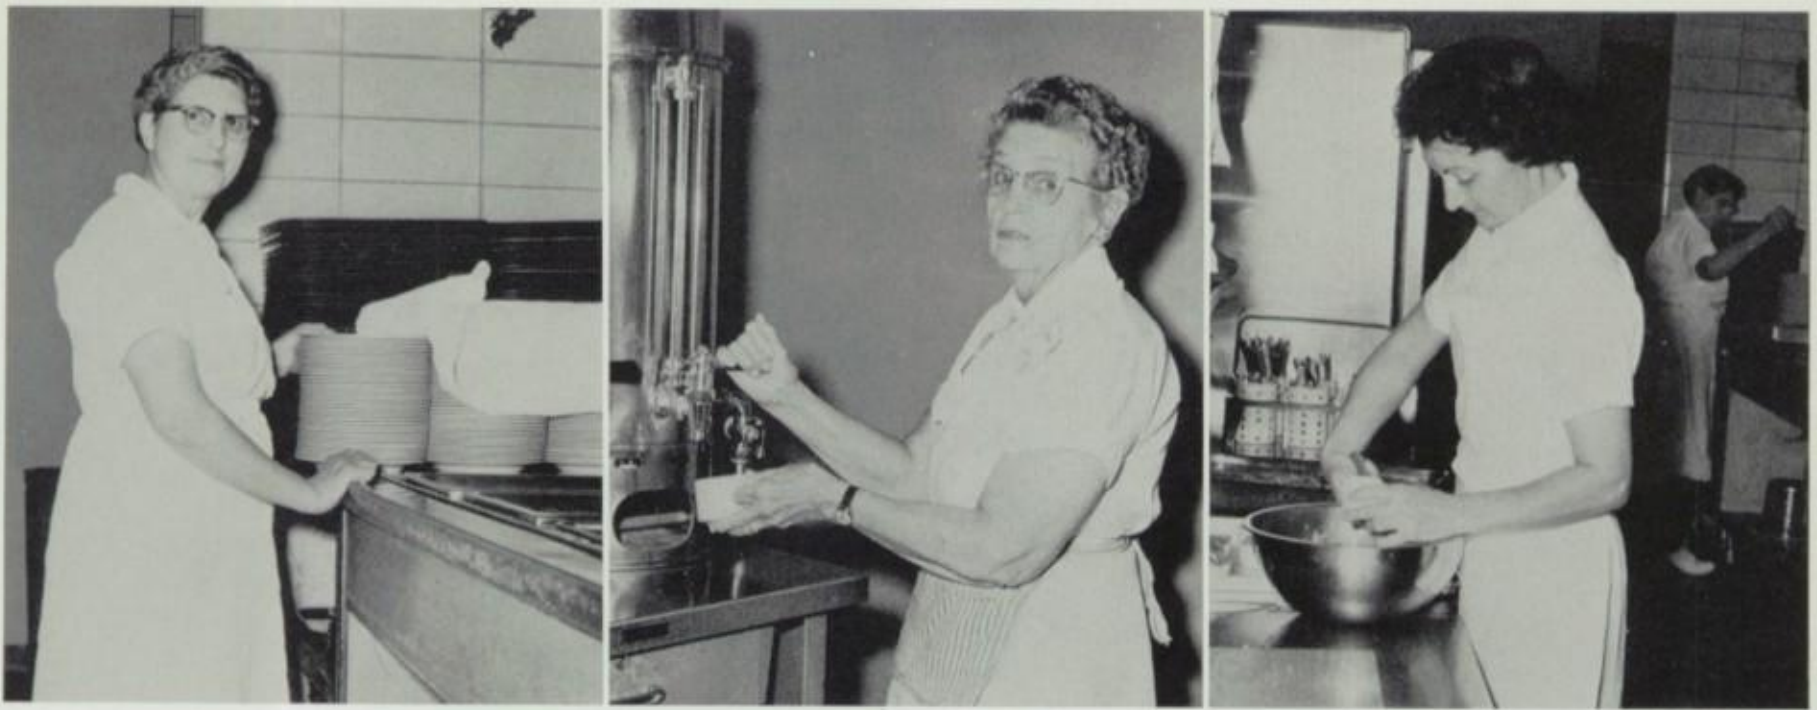

Adeline McGuine is constantly helping students with library research.

Delores Danekas is kept busy with a multitude of duties.

Bonnie Edwards, a whiz at the switchboard, is a great help in the office.

Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Calhoun (manager), and Mrs. Jeter are shown at their various duties of preparing a nutritious meal for the perpetual stream of students that confronts them daily.

Cooks, Custodians, and Bus Drivers Work Hard to Keep Hub Wheel Rolling

Busy custodians Chandler Kime, Joe Hockersmith, Chuck Miensma, and Claud Bales labor long hours every day to maintain R.T.H.S.'s neat appearance.

With nerves of steel, Leslie Montgomery, Corlon Eaton, Grantford Brown, LaVerne Krahenbuhl, Henry Hutson, Jim Conway, and Dick Krahenbuhl endure bad weather, noisy students, and blasting radios to carry on their bus routes.

To Shirley Ann Wilkerson,

Now when it comes to writing I am not to ^{tolerance} ~~tolerance~~ but I'll try my best and will see if I can fill this page - watch!!

To start I'd like to wish you the very best of luck in your school activities. Please get the best grades you can, because it is very important even if you don't work aptly your out of school. Always try to do your best. Always!!

Now for anyone else who reads this turn the fellow going with ^{Sibben} right now and let me say I hope I will always be going with her!

Shirley this is for you. To me your very special and I will try my best to make you happy at all times you mean very very much to me. I don't know whether or not I should write this or not but I am not afraid to say it - I LOVE YOU!!! Please be careful and take care at all times - if anything happened to you I'd —

Well guess I made the page so I'll have to stop writing. Be good and don't give the teachers a ruff time. LOVE (Jim) ^(Jimmie)

Shirley -

Here we are almost seniors, it sounds great doesn't it. The year has gone by too fast.
We've hardly had time to enjoy it, but it's been fun anyway. I hope we can get some classes together next year.
Our schedules didn't work out too well this year, did they. I wish you the best of luck. Stay as nice as you are and you'll be a success.

Shirley,

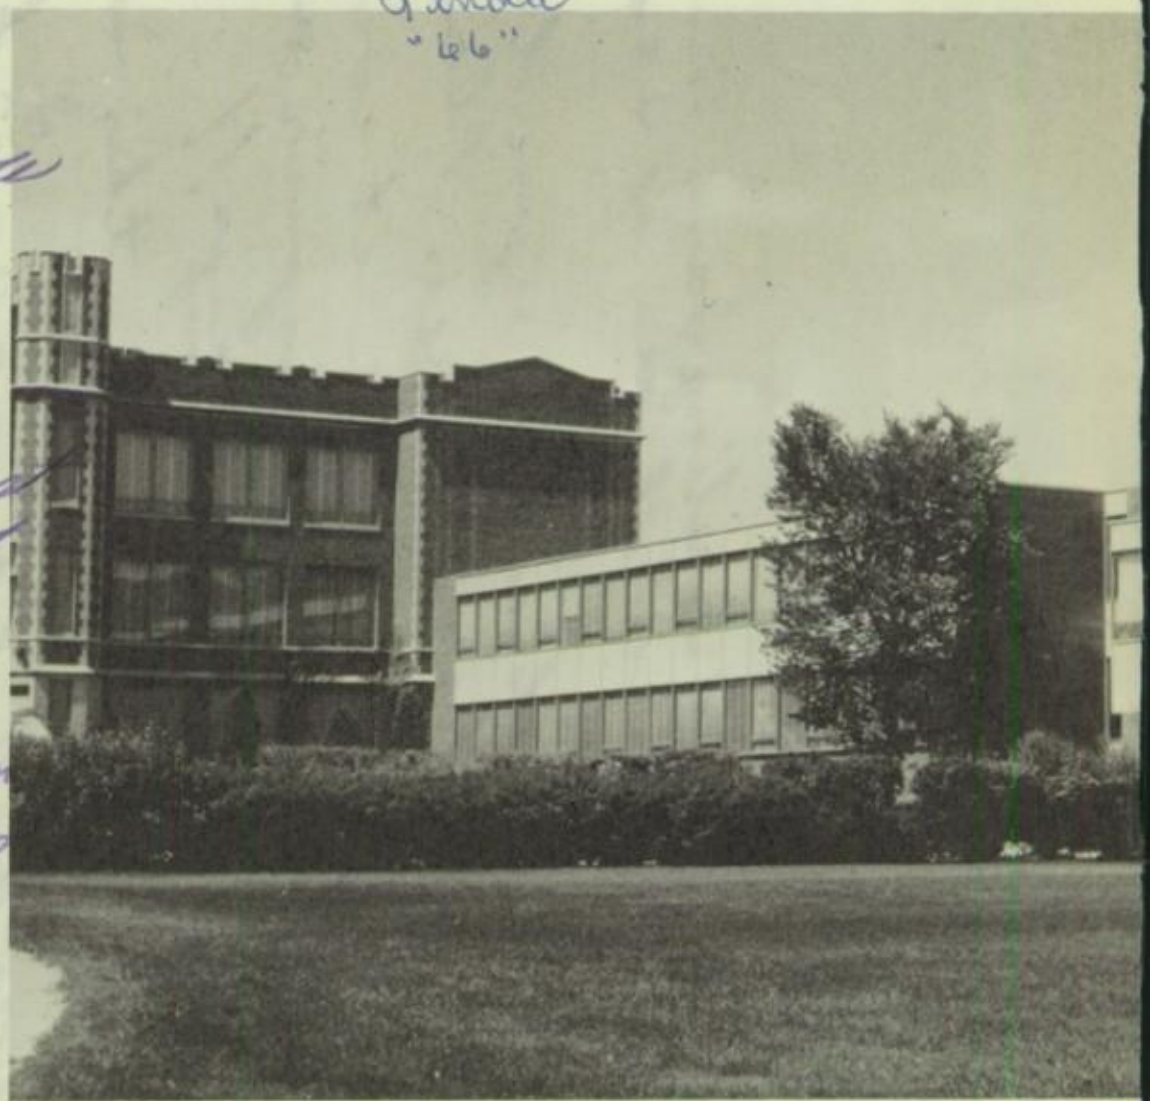

Love and stuff,

Linda
'66'

I could start out by telling you
how sweet & cute
you are. But then
I would waste space
because I think or at least hope you know that.
Good luck on what ever you do and take good care of Jim.
Hope to see ~~at~~ you this summer.

Linda

Shirley,
Good luck to a fellow junior. Best of luck with Jim. Maybe next year we can have more classes together. Have fun this summer.

National Honor Society

High standards of character, scholarship, leadership, and service were the basis for election of seventeen additional seniors and eight juniors to the National Honor Society. To be eligible for election, seniors had to excel in the above four characteristics and be in the upper one-fourth of their class. The members were elected by a faculty committee and were initiated by the ten senior students who had been elected during their junior year.

Installation ceremonies were held May 6, 1965, at the annual Scholastic Honors Program in the C. A. Hills Memorial Gymnasium. President Charles Peterson and Secretary Margel Schoonhoven, the organization's officers, and Mr. Peterson, the advisor, officiated.

Hubs Break Records

Jim Hopper's practice paid off as he qualified for the state meet.

Carson Brooks displays the form that brought him first place in the state meet at Champaign.

This year's Hub track and field team compiled a respectful 4-1-1 dual meet record, while breaking many old Hub records. Jim Hopper bettered the school record in the mile run three times during the season. Jim's best time came in the conference meet when he ran for second place in 4:31:9. The two-mile relay record was broken at the Palatine Relays. The team of Bob Furjanic, Joel Williams, Gary Johnson, and Jim Hopper placed second and ran the distance in 8:37.

The highlight of the year was the first place honor Carson Brooks brought R.T.H.S. in the State Track and Field meet. Carson won the discus event with a throw of 167'9". He broke the school record three times in the season, but his champion toss was the farthest.

The Hubs placed sixth in the annual N.C.I.C. Conference meet. Carson Brooks won the only first for the Hubs, but Gary Reineck, Jim Hopper, Tim Heitter, and Floyd Wilkinson all contributed with points to the Hub cause.

Forced by cold, snowy weather to practice indoors, the Hub baseball team got off to a shaky start but came back strong to win the district and regional titles.

After losing the first game and winning the three following, the batmen lost six successive contests. They scored a comeback, however, by winning seven in a row. The primarily underclass squad defeated Franklin Center 10-3 to clinch the district title, and then put a mark in the school's baseball record book by defeating Newark by a score of 6-0 to win the regional crown.

Under the direction of Mr. Lukehart and Mr. McMahon, the Hubs went on to sectional where they were defeated by St. Bede 10-5. Tom Eckhardt and Spencer Hayden were the squad's main pitchers. The Hubs finished the season with a 10-8 record and elected Tom Eckhardt, Jim Manning, and Dave Olson as tri-captains.

Hampered by the weatherman, the golf team got off to a slow start losing three of the first four matches. This slump was soon ended, and the team went on to win seven of the next eleven contests and tie one, completing a schedule of dual and triangular meets with a respectable 8-6-1 record.

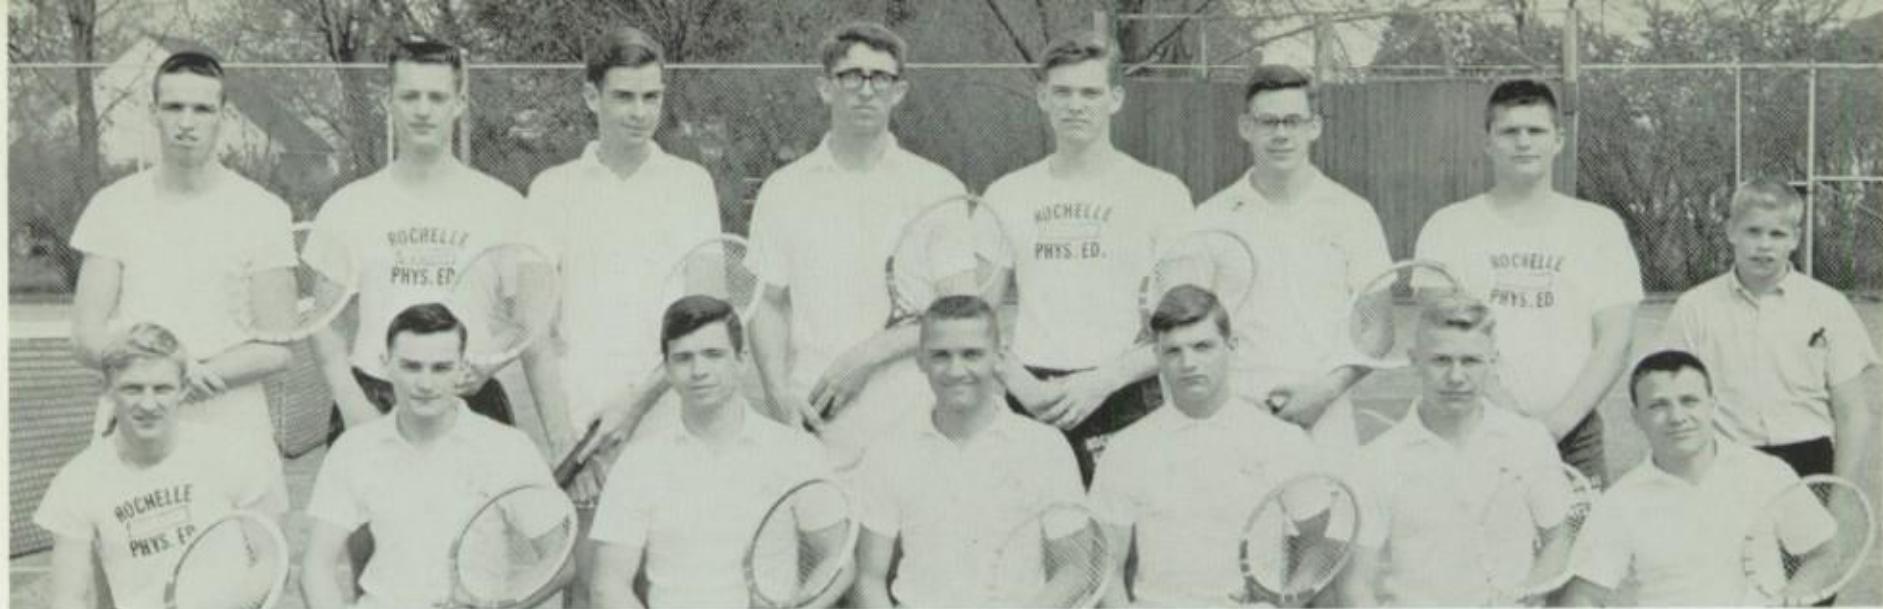

The team also competed in the district and conference meets, finishing eleventh and eighth respectively. The future, however, looks bright on the Hub golf scene, as the J.V. team posted a 10-1 record and fifteen members of the entire squad of seventeen will return, bolstered by six major letter winners.

Jim Anthenat and Noel Allison sharpen their skills on the putting green.

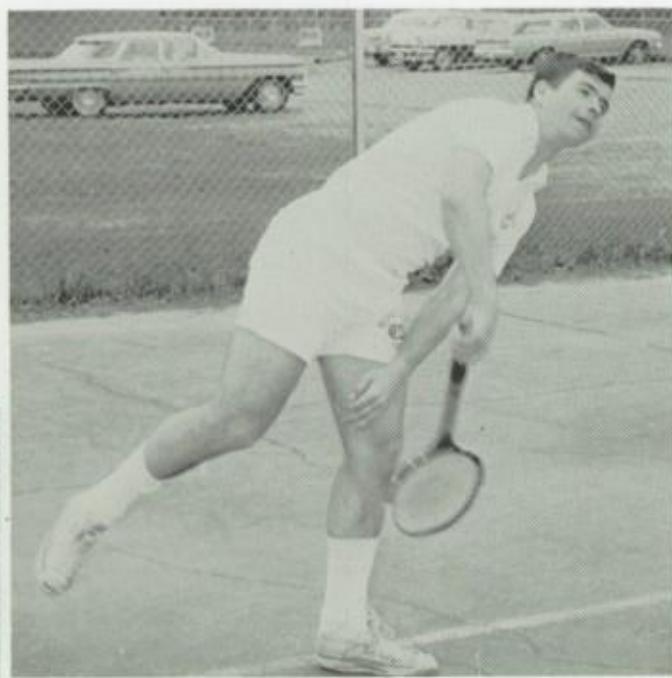

Captain Pat Garringer tees off.

Hub Netmen Smash Previous Record With 10-4 Season

This year's tennis team, under the direction of their new coach, Mr. Pierson, bounced a new season record for R.T.H.S. with a 10 win—4 loss season. Captain Bob Burkholder had a remarkable record for the season with a 12-2 mark to lead the squad. Brian Piersma, 11-3, and Marlin Cluts, 10-4, were other assets to the team.

The impressive victories over DeKalb, 8-1, Belvidere, 9-0, and Mt. Morris, 9-0 and 9-0, added up with the others to make the best school record ever obtained.

Nathaniel Coombes (Don Peck) looks on with awe as Parker Burnett (Geoff Coates) struggles to get Nancy Willard (Jane Sawinski) free from Charlie Stewart (Charles Peterson), who protests forcefully.

Lawyer Drenda Hicks explains the codicil to Miss Willard and Parker while Margaret Collins (Karen Linnemeier) concentrates intently on her knitting.

Gramercy Ghost — Senior Class Play of '65

"This isn't fantastic plasma I'm bleeding!" exclaims the policeman (Dick Wickness) who was assaulted by a whiskey bottle.

"Did I frighten you?" asks the ghost (Don Peck). "Not at all," replies Jane Sawinski, "I always faint when I see ghosts!"

"Melodies of Spring"

Couples head for the heavily laden refreshment stand during the intermission of Bob Over's band.

Sophomores selected to serve at the Junior-Senior Prom as doormen and servers pose behind a table loaded with delicious goodies.

Barry Benson is awarded his Carney "R" by Mr. Peterson.

Girls chosen to be flower girls from the junior class were: Ginny Pierce, Jane Weinreich, Alice Caron, Diane Hutson, Susan Masters, and Ellen McMullen.

Dr. Baughman Challenges Seniors at June Commencement Exercises

The largest class to date to be graduated from Rochelle Township High School received their diplomas on Wednesday, June 9, at 8 p.m. in the C. A. Hills Gymnasium. Superintendent Leroy R. Peterson presented the Class of '65 and board president Stanley W. Ohlson awarded diplomas to the 169 seniors.

The main speaker at the commencement exercises, Dr. M. Dale Baughman of the University of Illinois, challenged the graduates to be different, saying that "it is better to be right and stand alone, than to be wrong in the throng." Charles Peterson gave the invocation, class president Barry Benson, the response, and Geoffrey Coates, the benediction.

Junior flower girls selected to form the traditional arch of roses were Alice Caron, Diane Hutson, Ellen McMullen, Susan Masters, Virginia Pierce, and Janet Weinreich.

Guest speaker Dr. M. Dale Baughman, whose topic was "The Courage To Be Different," is welcomed by Mr. Peterson and Mr. Ohlson.

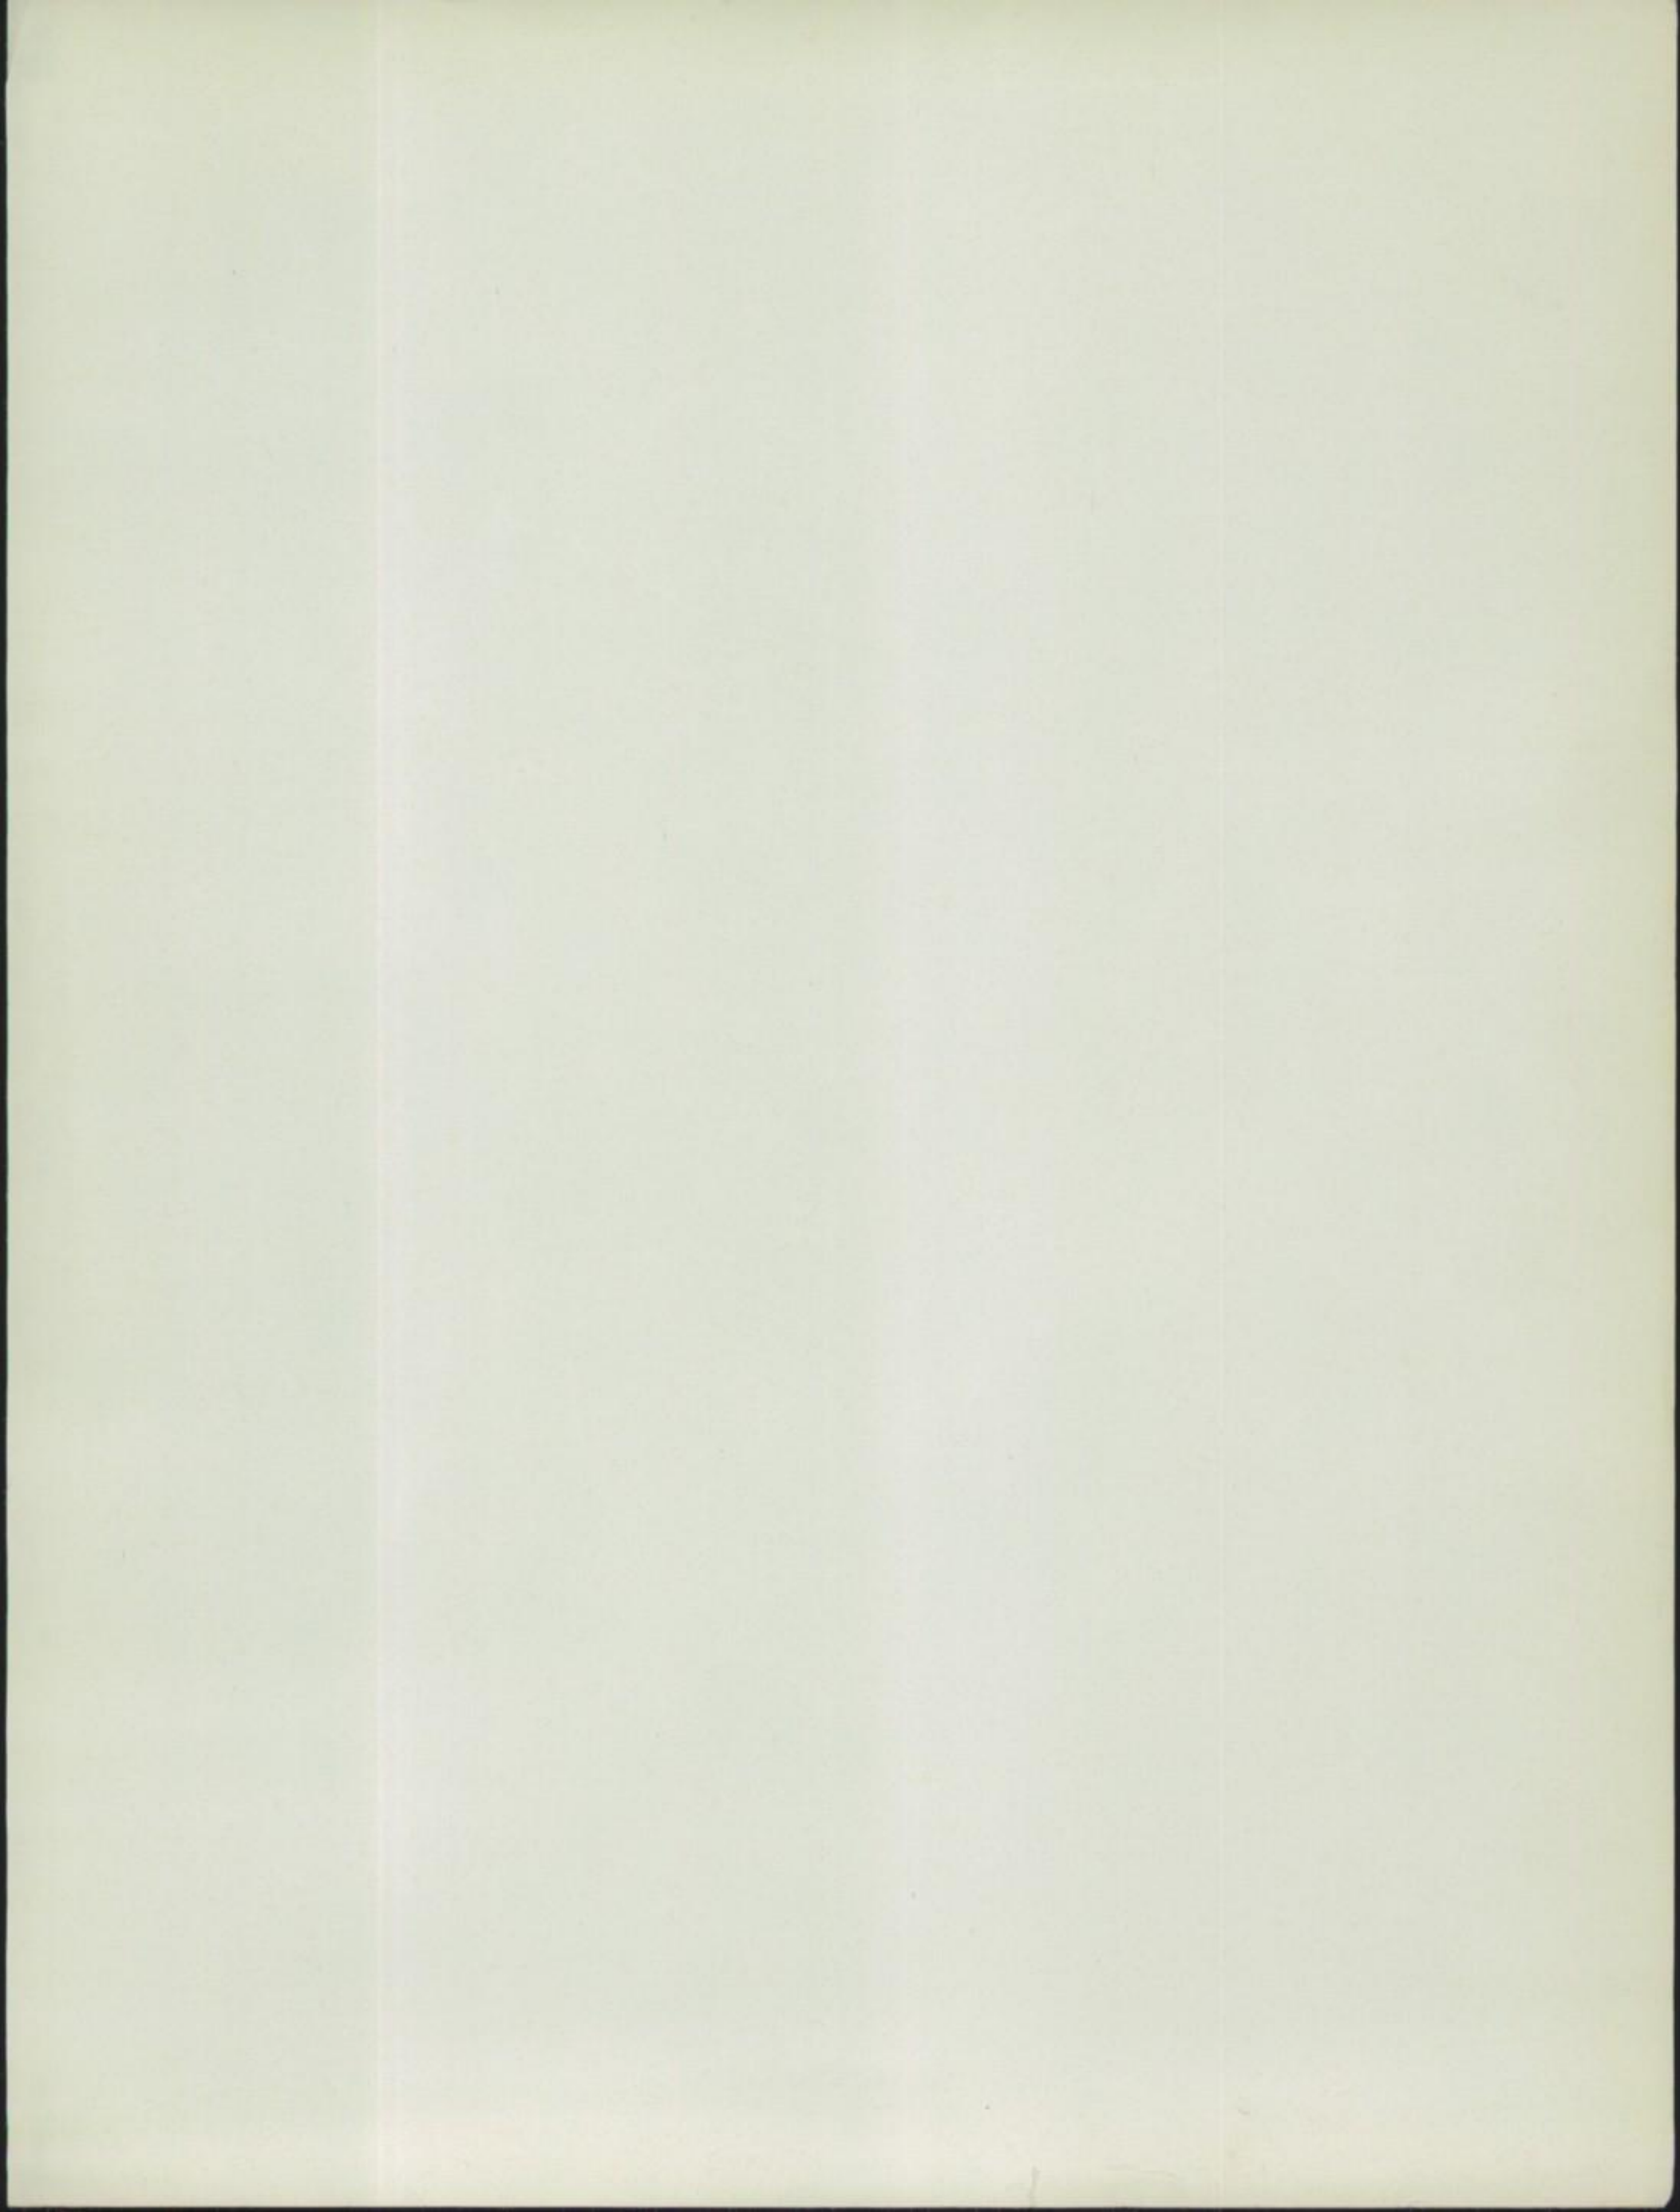

Receiving Carney awards for scholastic achievement were Diana Schultz (bronze), Margaret Carney (silver), Marge Schoonhoven (gold), Bob Burkholder (gold), Paul Weinhold (silver), and Barry Benson (bronze).

As the final hour approaches, the seniors begin their walk through the arch of roses.

Mr. Ohlson, president of the Board of Education, presents Barb Argetsinger with her diploma.
